Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 30 November 2006.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1-6 is/are pending in the application.
- 4a) Of the above claim(s) _____ is/are withdrawn from consideration.
- 5) ☒ Claim(s) 1 is/are allowed.

DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on 11/30/2006. These drawings are approved.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 2 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chen et al. (5,398,808). Chen discloses a corrugated-cardboard packing member (see Figures 3 and 4 embodiments) comprising: a bottom housing portion for housing an article; a pair of spacer portions (wall panels 22 and reinforcing panels 23), each spacer portion folded from a respective end of said bottom housing portion and arranged in a gap between the upper surface of a pair of holding members and an inner surface of a corrugated cardboard box, an opening (first opening 216) formed by cutting a predetermined area from the bottom housing portion and folding the predetermined area downward forming a folding portion; an article supporting portion adjacent to said opening; a second article supporting portion adjacent to said opening configured to support a second article; wherein the folding portion is arranged between the pair of holding members (second opening 216).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chen in view of Miyake (3,838,632). Chen '808 is silent about the direction of the core of the corrugated cardboard. Miyake '632 has merely been introduced (per applicant's request) to show that corrugated cardboards can be made with transversely or longitudinally directed corrugations, see Figures 36a and 36b. The longitudinally corrugated cardboard utilizes the strength in the longitudinal direction. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made in view of Miyake '632 to make the cores of the corrugated cardboard of the corrugated cardboard packing member extend in a direction orthogonal to a direction of extension of the pair of spacer portions to better utilize the strength of the cardboard.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claim 1 is allowed.
8. Claim 5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed 11/30/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Contrary to applicant's argument Chen '808 clearly discloses the pair of spacer portions being folded upward from a respective end of said bottom housing portion, which can be arranged in a gap between an upper surface of a pair of holding members and the inner surface of a corrugated cardboard box.

Conclusion

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
